

ABOUT THE STATE

Happenings of Interest from Different Sections.

At a meeting in Enosburgh Falls of interested business men, $10,000 was subscribed toward the establishment of a bobbin factory there.

While fishing through the ice on West river in Brattleboro one day last week, Philip Colgrove, Albert Vigneau and Henry Sexton caught four northern pike that weighed over 45 pounds. The largest one weighed 20 pounds.

This year will make 40 years that Clarence Sargent has taught music in Vermont. Mr. Sargent teaches the piano, organ, violin, cornet, etc., and uses the same method that is used in the conservatories of music. Mr. Sargent has a large number of pupils in Washington county.

Frank B. Carver, 61, of Bennington, who has been the agent in charge of the Holden, Leonard company mill there during the past 25 years, died at his home Saturday. Mr. Carver was at the mill office as usual Friday and apparently in his usual condition of health. During the night he suffered an attack of acute indigestion which was the direct cause of his death.

John Martin, 76, a retired farmer of Westfield, and Mrs. Anna Simon, 74, who has been living with a son, Stephen D. Simon, in Somerville, Mass., were married Dec. 29 at the rectory of St. Joseph's parish, Somerville, by Rev. C. T. McGrath, pastor. The couple will live in Westfield, where Mr. Martin owns a large estate. The marriage resulted after a friendship of many years.

The store of C. C. Field and the railroad station at Ferrisburgh were broken into some time during Sunday night, supposedly by a man and woman, who were seen loitering about the station and who left on a northbound train. From the store, fountain pens, shoes and many other articles were missing, amounting in value to about $100. Nothing was taken from the office in the railroad station.

SPANISH WAR VETERAN DEAD.

Robert T. Morse of Rutland was Native of Shelburne.

Rutland, Dec. 31.—Robert T. Morse of 41 Forest street died yesterday at the Rutland hospital after about four weeks' illness. Mr. Morse was 50 years of age and was born in Shelburne. When he was about 20 years of age he went to Middlebury to live and remained there for over 20 years. About five years ago he came to Rutland and made his home here since that time. He was a carpenter by trade and was also a member of the Loyal Order of Moose. Mr. Morse was a veteran of the Spanish-American war.

He is survived by his wife, two sons, Henry and Donald, three daughters, Mildred, Hallie and Elida, a sister, Mrs. Laura Bertrams of Burlington, and three brothers, Warren Morse of New York, Percy Morse of Seattle, Wash., and Charles Morse of Boston.

The funeral will be held Thursday morning at the house and the body will be placed in the vault at Evergreen cemetery until Friday when the remains will be taken to Middlebury for burial. The Morse will conduct the service.

WATERBURY

Mr. Davis took advantage of a quiet week before the Christmas rush to do extensive repairs on the inn. The dining room is being entirely renovated. Many of the old patrons will miss the fireplace, which had to be taken out to make more space. They are feeling the small number of guests for Christmas and New Year's and are now refusing accommodations until well into the new year.

Mrs. A. W. Morris of Montreal, who was to have been a guest of the inn and a month, was called away by illness in her family, but she expects to be able to return for a few days.

Miss Ruth Cuthbertson of Greensboro is a guest of Miss Kathryn Hayes at the Congregational parsonage.

Miss Henrietta Kerin of Montpelier is the guest of Mrs. Walter Irish.

The census enumerators for this locality are Hugh Lyons for Waterbury town; George Robinson for the village of Dr. E. A. Stanley for the hospital and Merrile Huntley Palmer for Duxbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Russell spent Christmas with Mrs. Russell's niece, Mrs. Wesley Sturge, in Burlington.

Mrs. Martha Pike has returned to the home of J. Frank Hodge, after spending Christmas with her grandchildren in Burlington.

Mrs. Frank Dibble returned to Montpelier Monday to be near her husband, who is at the Hoxton hospital.

Miss Lestina Bidwell left Saturday for Syracuse and from there goes with other college students to Des Moines, Ia., to attend the international convention of college students, which is expected to be the largest gathering of its kind ever held.

The surprise party given Mrs. J. F. Claire was a very pleasant affair as arranged and given by her sons. A large number of friends were present and regrets received from others who were unable to attend. Gifts of presents were given and refreshments served, there being two beautiful birthday cakes. Vocal selections were rendered by Mrs. F. C. Lamb, C. A. Riley and E. J. Edwards, while Carl Claire surprised his mother with some new vocal solos, also a piano duet with Mrs. Bostourt. Mrs. Bostourt was the accompanist of the evening. All in all, this was another of the delightful surprises of the community.

Monday morning in St. Andrew's church, the marriage ceremony of Edson William Martin and Miss Stella May Davis was solemnized by Rev. Robert Devoy. Mr. Martin is one of the Duxbury boys who made good in the service. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Martin and much respected in his native town. It is a matter of pleasure to all that he has brought his bride, a prominent Lincoln girl, here, and that they will make their home in North Duxbury.

HARDWICK

W. A. Dutton is a business visitor in Montpelier and Brattleboro this week.

G. J. Perkins has been a visitor in Brattleboro a part of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Dutton have closed their Maple street home for the winter and have taken apartments in the Carr block on Wolcott street.

The young people have greatly enjoyed the good skating on the Shipman mill pond the past week. Huge bonfires have been built each evening and have had lots of fun and recreation.

The alumni team came nearly upsetting the hopes of the H. A. team in keeping its slate clean thus far this season, the latter nosing out their old brothers by the close score of 30 to 25 in a fast and exciting game at the gym last Friday evening.

The remains of Miss Marietta Davis, daughter of C. E. Davis of this place, were brought here from Boston Monday morning and placed in the Main street receiving vault. She died in a hospital in Boston the latter part of last week, her decease being very sudden and a shock to her many friends here. She is survived by her father and two sisters, to whom deepest sympathy is extended.

William Murray is home from his work in Pittsburgh, Pa., and is a guest of his parents, P. A. Murray and wife. Mrs. Dora McCall of St. Johnsbury was a recent guest of her sister, Mrs. W. J. Clement, of this place.

Guy Knapp of Berlin, N. H., is a guest at the home of F. E. Fox and wife this week.

The opening game in the Lamolli Valley basketball league occurs here on Friday evening, Jan. 9, and will be at the Catholic academy. Last year the visitors put one over on us, and it remains to be seen whether they can repeat this year or not. Practice will be the factor that will say whether or not this can be done. Get busy, boys.

A Life Insurance Policy met a crying need by appointment. It couldn't and didn't try to stop the crying, but could and did stop the need. We write various forms of insurance to fit different needs.
